TOUR

September 28 – October 3 2020

7 nights in North Korea + Beijing-Pyongyang travel time

OVERVIEW

Calling all Chinese ex-pats! What better way to spend all of those days off for the Chinese National Holiday than exploring one of the world's least-visited countries - but surprisingly accessible from China!

Our Chinese National Holiday Tour includes a comprehensive city tour of Pyongyang as well as getting you down to the DMZ, where North and South Korea continue their decades-old face-off. We'll also head up to Pyongsong, a satellite city of Pyongyang and a centre for the national sci-tech industry. We will also take an afternoon trip east to the rarely visited Hoechang, site of a Chinese military cemetery from the Korean War!

Our comprehensive city tour of Pyongyang includes must-see sights such as the Mausoleum of the President Kim Il Sung and the General Kim Jong Il, and the Mansudae Grand Monument, as well as visiting more local places such as the bustling Kwangbok Supermarket, the only place in Pyongyang where tourists can spend local Won that can be changed at the black market exchange rate. It certainly won't be a relaxed Chinese golden week away, but it is an action pack week guaranteed to leave you wanting more!
