

International Children's Day 3-Night Tour

May 31st – June 3rd 2021

3 nights in North Korea + Beijing-Pyongyang travel time

OVERVIEW

There is a famous saying in North Korea that 'Children are the Kings of the Country' and significant attention is devoted to children's upbringing and education. International Children's Day on the 1st of June is particularly important and celebrations are held in recognition of children throughout North Korea.

This is a day that is usually marked by student-oriented activities, events, and celebrations. We'll spend the holiday in the capital Pyongyang out and about in the city visiting locations popular with schoolchildren and their families, letting out our inner child and joining in the fun!

During our time in Pyongyang, we will make sure to take you to the best that the country's capital has to offer, including Kim Il Sung Square, the Juche Tower, and the Mansudae Grand Monument.

Apart from Pyongyang, this tour will also visit historic Kaesong and the DMZ, the capital of the medieval Koryo Dynasty and the current North-South Korea border.
